

Innovative Example Descriptions

Serving Our Nation's Service Members, Veterans, Families & Families of the Fallen

Across the nation, many local-level organizations are stepping up to the plate to ensure that our Nation's returning Service Members, Veterans, Families and Families of the Fallen have access to the services and support they need to succeed during transition and reintegration into civilian life. The focus of these efforts is on education, meaningful employment and access to health care within communities.

1. Web Portals – Expanding Collaboration and Information Sharing at the Local Level

There is a need to expand collaboration and information sharing with Web portals through public-private partnerships to reduce costs, competition, and duplication of efforts. For example, the web portals below assist community organizations in helping Veterans, Service Members and families access the wide range of services and resources available to them during transition and community reintegration. Community organizations are encouraged to contribute information and resources to these portals as a way to expand their reach and effectiveness.

Illinois Joining Forces (IJF)

Illinois Joining Forces is a state-wide public and private organizational network that allows for collaboration and marshaling of available resources and services in order to create efficient access and delivery to the State's military and veteran communities. It is a joint Illinois Department of Military Affairs and Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs effort that strives to improve the quality of life for service members, veterans, and their families throughout the state of Illinois. Illinois Joining Forces gives individuals the ability to search by topic, county, and zip code for services such as housing, education, employment and job training, behavioral health, disability benefits, emergency assistance, and legal support.

National Resource Directory (NRD)

The National Resource Directory is a government-sponsored Web portal created to help wounded warriors, Service Members, Veterans and their families and caregivers connect to services and resources that support recovery, rehabilitation and community reintegration. It provides access to thousands of services and resources at the national, state, and local levels and gives individuals the ability to search by topic, state, and zip code. The NRD was created collaboratively by the U.S. Departments of Defense, Veterans Affairs, and Labor. The information it contains comes from federal, state, and local government agencies; Veterans service and benefit organizations; nonprofit and community based organizations; academic institutions; and professional associations that provide assistance to wounded warriors and their families.

3. Education

Entrepreneurship Bootcamp for Veterans (EBV)

The Entrepreneurship Bootcamp for Veterans with Disabilities (EBV) offers cutting edge, experiential training in entrepreneurship and small business management to post-9/11 veterans with disabilities resulting from their service to our country. The EBV is designed to open the door to business ownership for our veterans by 1) developing your skills in the many steps and activities associated with launching and growing a small business, and by 2) helping you leverage programs and services for veterans and people with disabilities in a way that furthers your entrepreneurial dreams. The EBV is designed around two central elements: a) focused, practical training in the tools and skills of new venture creation and growth, reflecting issues unique to disability and public benefits programs; and b) the establishment of a support structure for graduates of the program. The practical elements of the program will involve three phases: 1) Delegates participate in a self-study curriculum, facilitated by an online discussion and assessment module, which will be moderated by entrepreneurship faculty and graduate students from one of the partner EBV Universities. During this phase delegates will work on the development of their own business concepts. 2) During the nine-day residency at one of the eight EBV Universities, delegates are exposed to the "nuts and bolts" of business ownership through experiential workshops and lessons from world-class entrepreneurship faculty representing nationally ranked programs around the country. 3) Delegates are provided with ongoing technical assistance from faculty experts at the EBV Universities and EBV partners.

The Mission Continues

The Mission Continues awards community service fellowships to post-9/11 veterans, empowering them to transform their own lives by serving others and directly impacting their communities. Mission Continues Fellows serve for six months at a local nonprofit organization addressing key educational, environmental or social issues. Each Fellow works to achieve one of three outcomes at the conclusion of the fellowship: full-time employment, pursuit of higher education or a permanent role of service. At the culmination of the fellowship, each Fellow will lead a service project in his/her community, bringing veterans and civilians together in days of service nationwide. These projects are bridging the military-civilian divide, allowing veterans to feel more connected to their communities and helping civilians gain a better understanding of and appreciation for our men and women in uniform.
