GLOBAL FORCE MANAGEMENT

Program of study with emphasis on JCRM and the GFM process

Our Global Force Management (GFM) program provides Joint Operations personnel, Joint Planning and Execution Community (JPEC), Professional Military Education institutions, and combatant commands conducting joint exercises with a firm understanding of the assignment, allocation, apportionment, and assessment processes, as well as functionality of the tools, guidance, and procedures supporting the National Defense Strategy.

Global Force Management Courses

GFM Overview

Joint Capabilities Requirements Manager Course

The Joint Capabilities Requirements Manager (JCRM) is a web-based GFM tool that increases the efficiency of the GFM process by providing senior DoD decision makers with a consolidated database of joint forces, capabilities, and requirements.

TRAINING VENUE OPTIONS

- Resident Training (RT) – Hands-on instruction at JDTC on Fort Eustis, VA
- Mobile Training Team (MTT) – Customer Requested Instruction/Support at worldwide locations
- Distributed Learning (DL) – Self-paced instruction through Joint Knowledge Online (JKO) and mentored instruction using Microsoft Teams

CUSTOMER REQUESTED INSTRUCTION/CUSTOMER REQUESTED SUPPORT (CRI/CRS)

Upon government request, JDTC can provide tailored instruction, subject matter expert (SME) support, and over-the-shoulder training customized to your organization's training needs or schedule. Training can be provided to organizations at their home stations or in theater for short notice deployments or exercise requirements. To request a CRI or CRS, visit <https://www.jdtc.eustis.army.mil/CR>.
