PROCEDURES RELATED TO THE CONDUCT OF MILITARY AFFAIRS OF THE MILITARY COMMITTEE, NATO

References:

- a. CJCSI 2700.01H, 31 March 2023, "Rationalization, Standardization, and Interoperability Activities"
- b. CJCSI 5116.05A, 11 January 2024, "Military Command, Control, Communications, and Computers Executive Board"

1. Purpose. This instruction establishes procedures to determine and communicate the U.S. Joint Staff position on military matters being considered by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Military Committee.

2. Superseded/Cancellation. Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Instruction (CJCSI) 2010.01J, 29 November 2022, "Procedures Related to the Conduct of Military Affairs of the Military Committee, NATO" is hereby superseded.

3. Applicability. This instruction applies to the CJCS, Joint Staff, U.S. Representative to the Military Committee (USMILREP), and the U.S. National Military Representative (USNMR) to Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe (SHAPE), U.S. National Liaison Representative (USNLR) to Allied Command Transformation (ACT), and U.S. Delegation to the Military Committee (USDELMC).

4. Policy

a. The USMILREP, USNMR, USNLR, and their staffs—known collectively as the USDELMC—will be guided by the following:

(1) To begin developing a U.S. Joint Staff position, USDELMC will identify NATO military issues and recommend positions to the appropriate Joint Staff Directorates (J-Dirs), as indicated in Enclosures A and B. The

J-Dirs will coordinate actions as required and communicate a coordinated Joint Staff position to the USDELMLC.

(2) Actions outside the scope of Enclosures A and B should be referred to the Secretary, Joint Staff (SJS) for Joint Staff tasking.

(3) While developing U.S. Joint Staff positions on NATO military issues, the USDELMLC will recommend any changes required to CJCS-established policy considered necessary to obtain a satisfactory international agreement.

(4) Once a proposed U.S. Joint Staff position on NATO military issues is within the terms of CJCS policy and has been approved by the Military Committee, it will be referred to the appropriate J-Dir for action and distribution as required.

b. The cognizant J-Dir will consult and coordinate with the USDELMLC, supporting J-Dirs, and U.S. members of multinational working groups supporting the Military Committee to provide informal advice, information, support, and CJCS-approved guidance as necessary.

(1) Enclosure A lists the multinational groups supporting the NATO Military Committee, agencies providing U.S. representation, and cognizant J-Dirs with primary responsibilities or interest.

(2) Enclosure B lists functional area responsibilities.

5. Definitions. None.

6. Responsibilities

a. The USMILREP will recommend Joint Staff positions and, once directed, ensure those positions are communicated to appropriate NATO bodies.

b. The SJS will distribute information to and task appropriate J-Dirs, as required.

c. The J-Dirs will coordinate positions and communicate Joint Staff positions to the USDELMLC, coordinate formally and informally with USMILREP, and provide formal responses to SJS tasking.

d. The Joint Staff Directorate for Intelligence, J-2 will coordinate NATO intelligence affairs with the broader Defense Intelligence Enterprise (DIE), the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and Security, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, as required.

7. Summary of Changes

a. Added reference (b).

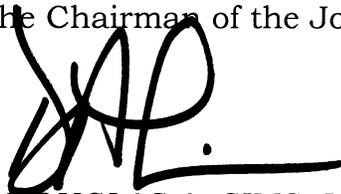

b. Moved and edited the subparagraph covering coordination of intelligence affairs from Policy to Responsibilities, and expanded its scope to include the DIE.

c. Updated Enclosures A and B based upon changes within NATO and functional areas.

8. Releasability. UNRESTRICTED. This instruction is approved for public release; distribution is unlimited on the Non-classified Internet Protocol Router Network (NIPRNET). DoD Components (to include the Combatant Commands), other Federal agencies, and the public may obtain copies of this instruction through the Internet from the CJCS Directives Electronic Library at <<http://www.jcs.mil/library>>. Joint Staff activities may also access or obtain copies of this directive from the SECRET Internet Protocol Router Network (SIPRNET) directives Electronic Library web sites.

9. Effective Date. This INSTRUCTION is effective upon signature.

For the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff:

DOUGLAS A. SIMS, LTG, USA
Director, Joint Staff
